Answer:

PJC 28.4	Personal Injury Damages—Injury of Spouse
QUESTION
pensate Mary P	money, if paid now in cash, would fairly and reasonably com- layne for injuries, if any, to her husband, Paul Payne, that e occurrence in question?
each element seg you have otherw the same loss. The	elements of damages listed below and none other. Consider parately. Do not award any sum of money on any element if vise, under some other element, awarded a sum of money for nat is, do not compensate twice for the same loss, if any. Do not on any amount of damages you find.
the amounts, if a Payne . Any reco your answers at t	ately, in dollars and cents, for damages, if any. Do not reduce any, in your answers because of the negligence, if any, of Paul very will be determined by the court when it applies the law to the time of judgment. of household services sustained in the past.
	ld services" means the performance of household and domes- spouse to the marriage.
	of household services that, in reasonable probability, Mary stain in the future.
3. Loss	of consortium sustained in the past.
affection, sola	um" means the mutual right of the husband and wife to that ace, comfort, companionship, society, assistance, sexual relatal support, love, and felicity necessary to a successful mar-
Answer: _
4. Loss sustain in the	of consortium that, in reasonable probability, Mary Payne will future.